

City of Moonee Valley

Acknowledgment

Moonee Valley City Council respectfully acknowledges the traditional custodians of this land - the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung people of the Kulin Nation, their spirits, ancestors, elders and community members past and present.

Council also extends this respect to Elders and descendants of other Aboriginal peoples here today.

Artwork: Judy Nicholson

The Myth of the Rainbow, 2015

Our Remit

We want to understand what a thriving community looks like in Moonee Valley.

To achieve the MV2040 vision, what should be the top 15 priority outcomes?

Outcome

Moonee Valley is powered by renewable energy.

Outcome

Residents are encouraged to generate less waste, and recycle more, to the benefit of the environment.

Outcome

Residents have access to places other than work or home where they are comfortable to relax or connect.

Outcome

Community members feel safe living and moving around the neighbourhood and Moonee Valley city.

Outcome

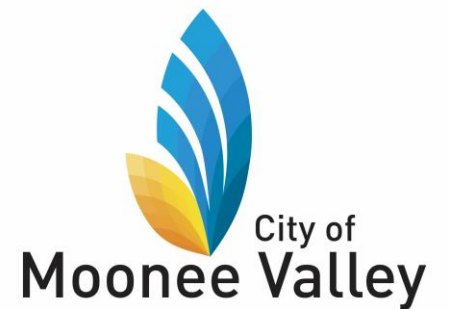

All residents feel supported by a range of programs and services through all life stages.

Outcome

Older people and people with disabilities are supported to live safely and independently.

Outcome

Moonee Valley City Council demonstrates a genuine connection to, and supports First Nations people

Outcome

All public open spaces are safe and inviting.

Outcome

Businesses in Moonee Valley have opportunities to flourish with support and investment from the council and community.

Outcome

Existing and prospective residents have access to suitable, secure and well-planned housing options.

Outcome

People with physical and mental health challenges feel accepted and have the support they need

Outcome

The community has access to well maintained and utilised green spaces

Outcome

Community have confidence in Council making honest, fair and transparent decisions

Outcome

The community has readily available access to services and facilities that support demand

Outcome

All community members, regardless of need, have easy access to appropriate transport options

Outcome

In Moonee Valley I can express my sense of culture and am respected regardless of my diverse background